Filed with:

Posted in office of the authority conducting the drawing and on its website if one is maintained by the authority conducting the drawing.

Comments:

For an election held at county expense or a city election, on receipt of a candidate's written request accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope, the authority conducting the drawing shall mail written notice of the date, hour, and place of the drawing to the candidate.

For an election held by any other political subdivision, the authority conducting the drawing shall mail written notice of the date, hour, and place of the drawing to each candidate, at the address stated on the candidate's application for a place on the ballot, not later than the fourth day before the date of the drawing.

There is no form or drawing procedure for declared write-in candidates. Write-in candidates are typically listed in alphabetical order. However, if you choose to have a drawing for write-in candidates, posting notice of the drawing using this form is recommended.
