

Name of Form:

Carrier Envelope and Instructions for Early Voting Ballot.

Section Reference:

Section 86.013, Texas Election Code.

Purpose:

To hold and mail the ballot envelope with voted ballot.

Number of Copies Required:

One per early voter.

Completed by:

The Voter and Early Voting Clerk.

Filing Date:

7:00 p.m. on Election Day. If you are voting from outside the United States, the late counting ballot rules may apply.

Filed with:

Early Voting Clerk.

Comments:

If the early voting clerk receives a defective carrier envelope, he/she may deliver in person or mail the carrier envelope to the voter with instructions on how to correct the carrier envelope. He/she may also notify the voter by telephone of the defect and advise the voter to come in person to the clerk's office to correct the defect or cancel his/her application to vote by mail.

Current form is 8/08. There have been a few tweaks in the Spanish since the 12/07 date.

Once the 12/07 stock is exhausted, print the 8/08 carrier envelope.
