

Texas Attorney General Victim Assistance Programs

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) awards, grants and/or contracts for direct services and support for victims of crime. In addition to these direct funds some statewide non-profit organizations, which also receive Texas Attorney General Victim Assistance Program funding, send additional funds to local organizations for education and victim assistance. These non-profit organizations are currently providing an aggressive public awareness program regarding available victim services.

The following is a list of colonias counties which received Texas Attorney General Victim Assistance Programs funding during FY 2005 (source: The Crime Victim Services Division annual report for Fiscal Year 2005.*
