Section 1.005 of the Election Code defines a "federal judge" and a "state judge" as the following:

"Federal judge" means:

- (A) a judge, former judge, or retired judge of a United States court of appeals;
- (B) a judge, former judge, or retired judge of a United States district court;
- (C) a judge, former judge, or retired judge of a United States bankruptcy court; or
- (D) a magistrate judge, former magistrate judge, or retired magistrate judge of a United States district court.

"State judge" means:

- (A) a judge, former judge, or retired judge of an appellate court, a district court, a constitutional county court, a county court at law, or a statutory probate court of this state;
- (B) an associate judge appointed under Chapter 201, Family Code, or a retired associate judge or former associate judge appointed under that chapter;
- (C) a magistrate or associate judge appointed under Chapter 54 or 54A, Government Code;
- (D) a justice of the peace; or
- (E) a municipal court judge.
