NOTICE OF CARRIER DEFECT ISSUED BY THE EARLY VOTING CLERK
Defective Carrier Envelope Returned to the Voter by Mail

Your Carrier Envelope has been received and reviewed but is defective for the reason(s) provided below. Texas law allows you to correct certain defects on your Carrier Envelope after the marked ballot has been received by the Early Voting Clerk. Your Carrier Envelope is enclosed with this notice so that you can make the necessary correction(s).

There is a checkmark below next to the reason(s) that your Carrier Envelope was defective. DO NOT OPEN YOUR CARRIER ENVELOPE OR REMOVE YOUR BALLOT FROM THE CARRIER ENVELOPE!

_____ 1. The Carrier Envelope was not signed.
_____ 2. The Carrier Envelope contained incomplete information with respect to a witness.
_____ 3. The Carrier Envelope contained incomplete information with respect to an assistant.
_____ 4. Texas law requires you to provide identification information which matches the identification information associated with your voter registration record in order to vote by mail. Your Carrier Envelope had the following defect regarding the identification information:
   - Your Carrier Envelope did not contain your Texas Driver’s License Number, Texas Personal Identification Number, Texas Election Identification Certificate Number or the Last 4 digits of your Social Security Number;
   - The number provided did not match the number associated with your voter registration record as provided by your County’s Voter Registrar;
   - If you were not issued one of the documents with the required number, you did not indicate this fact on the Carrier Envelope.

How to Correct the Defect on Your Carrier Envelope and Return Your Mailed Ballot to the Early Voting Clerk

You must correct the defect directly on the Carrier Envelope or by using the Corrective Action Form located on the back of this notice. Please use the envelope provided in this packet to return the corrected Carrier Envelope (and Corrective Action Form if used) to the Early Voting Clerk. The envelope MUST be postmarked by 7:00 p.m. on Election Day and received by the Early Voting Clerk no later than 5:00 p.m. the next business day after election day. You may also hand-deliver your corrected Carrier Envelope (and Corrective Action Form if used) to the Early Voting Clerk’s Office on Election Day between 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. You may only hand-deliver your own Carrier Envelope.

Defect Correction Process by Number

- Defect #1 – Sign the Carrier Envelope or the Corrective Action Form in the designated space.
- Defect #2 – If you used a witness for your Carrier Envelope because you were not able to sign or make your mark and the witness information was missing or incomplete, please ask the witness to complete the witness portion of the Corrective Action Form. You may use a different person as a witness if the same person is not available. NOTE: If you no longer need a witness, you must be able to sign the Carrier Envelope or the Signature Box in the Corrective Action Form.
- Defect #3 – If you used an assistant to help you read or mark the ballot, please ask the assistant to complete the assistant portion of the Corrective Action Form. An assistant must complete all information, including answering the question about whether he/she received compensation or other benefit in exchange for providing assistance. The person who previously assisted you must be the same person who completes the assistant portion of the Corrective Action Form.
- Defect #4 – Complete Box #4 of the Corrective Action Form on the reverse side of this notice by adding your personal identification information.

Cancelling Your Ballot by Mail - If you do not wish to correct the defect on the Carrier Envelope, you may still vote in person by cancelling your Ballot by Mail. You may appear at an Early Voting or Election Day polling place and surrender your Carrier Envelope with the official ballot inside. Upon the surrender of your Ballot by Mail, you are entitled to vote a regular ballot. If you do not surrender your Ballot by Mail, you will be given a Provisional Ballot.

You can track the progress of your ballot during the election cycle by logging on to the Ballot by Mail Tracker on votetexas.gov.

To utilize the Ballot by Mail Tracker, you must enter your name and:

- Your Texas Driver’s License Number or Texas Personal Identification Number;
- The last four digits of your Social Security number; AND
- Your date of birth
